FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

KISS NAIL PRODUCTS, INC.,
(d/b/a Kiss Products, Inc.)

RORAJ TRADE, LLC and PARLUX

Defendants.

Civil Action No.: 17-cv-1291

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

COMPLAINT FOR TRADEMARK INFRINGEMENT AND UNFAIR COMPETITION

Plaintiff, Kiss Nail Products, Inc. (“Plaintiff” or “Kiss”), seeks injunctive and monetary relief from Defendants Roraj Trade, LLC (“Roraj”) and Parlux Fragrances, LLC (“Parlux”) (collectively, “Defendants”) for trademark infringement and unfair competition with regard to Plaintiff’s distinctive and federally registered trademark KISS. As alleged more fully below, Defendants have violated, and continue to violate, the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1051 et seq., and New York common law through their unauthorized use of Plaintiff’s trademark.

Plaintiff allege the following claims against Defendants:

NATURE OF THE DISPUTE

1. This is an action to combat Defendants’ federal trademark infringement and unfair competition in violation of Sections 32 and 43(a) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1114 and 1125(a), and trademark infringement and unfair competition in violation of the common law of the State of New York.

2. For more than 25 years, Kiss has marketed and sold cosmetics, nail care, and other beauty products under the distinctive trademark KISS. Kiss was one of the first businesses to sell professional-quality nail care products directly to consumers and has grown to become one of the world's largest manufacturers and distributors of salon and professional quality beauty products.

3. Notwithstanding Kiss's longstanding use and prior rights to the KISS mark in the beauty and cosmetics industry, Defendants recently released and began to sell a perfume under the identical "KISS" mark (the "Infringing Kiss Fragrance").

4. Defendants' use of the KISS mark infringes Kiss's rights to the KISS mark and is likely to cause confusion as to affiliation, connection, or association, of Defendants and the Infringing Kiss Fragrance with Kiss, or as to the origin, sponsorship, or approval of Defendants' Infringing Kiss Fragrance by Kiss.

5. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful manufacture, promotion, advertising, distribution, offering for sale and/or sale of infringing perfume products using the KISS trademark, Kiss is irreparably harmed. Kiss seeks a permanent injunction and monetary relief, as well as attorneys' fees and costs for Defendants' willful infringement as an exceptional case.

THE PARTIES

Upon information and belief, Parlux Fragrances, LLC also conducts business in this judicial district at 630 3rd Avenue, Suite 602, New York, NY 10017.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

9. This is a civil action arising from Defendants' purposeful and willful copying of Kiss's valuable KISS trademark on closely related products in the beauty industry. The claims alleged in this Complaint arise under the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1051, et seq. and New York common law.

10. Kiss's KISS brand of cosmetics, nail care, and related beauty products are sold online and in retail stores across the United States, including within this judicial district. Kiss has sustained the damages complained of herein in this judicial district.

11. Upon information and belief, Defendant Roraj manages and owns intellectual property associated with the popular singer Robyn Rihanna Fenty d/b/a Rihanna, including the right to use the singer's name, likeness, and related trademarks for her fragrance collections and the Infringing Kiss Fragrance.

12. Upon information and belief, Defendant Parlux is a manufacturer and distributor of fragrance and beauty-related products and has partnered with Defendant Roraj to manufacture and distribute the Infringing Kiss Fragrance. Upon information and belief, Parlux transacts regular and continuous business in New York and this judicial district.

13. Defendants' Infringing Kiss Fragrance has been offered for sale and sold to New York residents and in this judicial district. Defendants have distributed the Infringing Kiss Fragrance to retailers that offer the product for sale nationally via an interactive website, including to New York residents, and New York residents can also view the Infringing Kiss Fragrance through Rihanna's official website, www.rihannanow.com, and can submit orders to purchase the Infringing Kiss Fragrance through that website's link to www.macys.com and have the Infringing Kiss Fragrance shipped to New York.

14. This Court has original subject matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1121 and 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338(a), and has supplemental jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a) over claims under New York law because such claims are so related to the federal claims that they form part of the same case or controversy and derive from a common nucleus of operative facts.

15. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant Roraj because it resides in this jurisdiction by virtue of its incorporation in the state of New York and its address for process in this judicial district, by virtue of its commission of tortious acts within this judicial district, and its transaction of business within the state of New York and this judicial district. Upon information and belief, Defendant Roraj purposefully directs its business activities toward consumers in the State of New York, including within this judicial district; derives a commercial benefit from its contacts within the State of New York; and is causing injury to Kiss within the State of New York.

16. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant Parlux because it resides in this jurisdiction by virtue of its principal place of business being located in New York and its operation of an office in this judicial district, because it regularly transacts business within the state of New York and this judicial district, and because its Infringing Kiss Fragrance is sold online and to customers in this judicial district and elsewhere in the United States. Upon information and belief, Defendant Parlux purposefully directs its business activities toward consumers in the State of New York, including within this judicial district; derives a commercial benefit from its contacts within the State of New York; and is causing injury to Kiss within the State of New York.

17. Venue is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331(b) because a substantial part of the events giving rise to Kiss's claims occurred in this judicial district due to at least the fact that Defendants have promoted their goods bearing the infringing mark through an interactive website that sells goods to consumers in this judicial district.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

A. Kiss's Longstanding and Prior Use of the KISS Marks

18. Since it was established in 1989, Kiss has been a major player in the beauty supply market. Today, Kiss is the largest manufacturer and distributor of professional quality nail products in the world. As its products became more and more popular, Kiss expanded its distribution from individual beauty supply stores to the mass-market arena. Kiss was the first company to bring quality, professional nail care directly to consumers through the mass market. Today, the Kiss line of products has expanded to include many different types of nail care, false eyelashes, cosmetics, hair appliances, and other beauty products. Kiss's beauty and cosmetic products were designed to allow individual consumers to "Bring the Salon Home" and achieve salon quality results without the cost and hassle of visiting a salon.

19. Kiss brands are available in over 90 countries, but the United States is its largest market. Kiss's products are widely available for purchase online and at most nationwide retailers, including Wal-Mart, Walgreen's, CVS, Rite Aid, Duane Reade, and Target.

20. Kiss has used the unique and distinctive mark KISS to identify its products for more than 27 years—long prior to Defendants' release of the Infringing Kiss Perfume.

21. Kiss currently sells a variety of beauty and cosmetics products in International Class 3 under the KISS Mark, including cosmetics, makeup, nail products, and false eyelashes, as well as nail tools, hair treatments and electronic hair tools. Kiss's KISS branded products are widely distributed and available in all leading channels of trade for beauty products, including online and in retail and wholesale stores.

22. Kiss is the current market leader for adhesive nail products and also holds a strong market share for false eyelashes. More than ten years ago, Kiss expanded to selling electronic hair tools and a wide range of cosmetics and makeup.

23. Kiss previously offered a fragrance under the KISS brand in 2009.

24. Kiss is the owner of multiple U.S. trademark registrations for the mark KISS in Class 3 for cosmetics and nail care products. Kiss's use of the KISS mark on goods in Class 3 dates back to 1989. Specifically, Kiss is the owner of the following federal registrations for the KISS mark:

25. True and correct copies of the foregoing registrations (collectively, the "KISS

Mark") are attached as Exhibit A.

26. Kiss's Registration Nos. 2,616,120 and 2,248,495 are incontestable pursuant to 15

U.S.C. § 1065.

27. Kiss also owns common law rights to the KISS Mark, as well as various additional registrations for marks incorporating the word KISS.

28. Prior to the acts of Defendants complained of herein, hundreds of millions of dollars of products under the KISS Mark were sold at retail annually for each of the past 15 years throughout the United States.

29. Kiss has also devoted millions of dollars to promoting and advertising, in all offline, online, and digital media, the KISS brand and products bearing the KISS Mark. As a result, the KISS Mark has become synonymous with Kiss's high quality beauty and cosmetics products.

30. Kiss's products have also received considerable third party recognition and publicity. Kiss's nail products, for instance, have been worn and displayed at New York Fashion Week runway shows for top fashion designers such as Naeem Khan, Christian Siriano, Erin Fetherston, Bibhu Mohapatra, and Carmen Marc Valvo and have been worn on the red carpet by well-known celebrities such as Ashley Graham, Nicole Scherzinger, Cheryl Burke, Min Na Wen, Leona Lewis, Sharon Osborne, and Jenna Dewan Tatum.

31. In addition, Kiss's products sold under the KISS Mark have been featured in national publications such as In Touch Weekly, People Style Watch, Essence, Seventeen, Real Simple, New York Magazine, Girls Life, O, The Oprah Magazine, and US Weekly.

32. As a result of Kiss's longstanding use and extensive promotion of the distinctive KISS Mark in this judicial district and elsewhere, the KISS Mark is recognized by the consuming public and in the trade as indicating an origin from Kiss. Kiss has built up considerable goodwill and consumer brand loyalty in the KISS Mark through its longstanding use and publicity of the KISS Mark.
